Thomas died within two months of his birth. Our father had taken Thomas down to the Sisters of St Joseph Convent where he had biological sisters who were members of the St. Joseph order. They had indicated that they wanted to offer Thomas up to God and presented Thomas at the altar and prayed at that time. When Thomas died Dad seemed to think that the service had something to do with Thomas's death and had a hard time forgiving them according to other members of the family

The Evening Sun, May 15, 2002 - Obituary of William F. Krepps
McSherrystown

William F. "Pacer" Krepps, 81, of McSherrystown, died Tuesday, May 14, 2002, at York Hospital. Born Nov. 15, 1920, in McSherrystown, he was the son of the late Mark E. and Edna M. (Smith) Krepps.

He retired from the U.S. Postal Service in McSherrystown after many years as a mail carrier. He was a member of Annunciation Catholic Church in McSherrystown; Catholic War Veterans in Bonneauville; Delone Athletic Association; life member and past president of McSherrystown Home Association; and, for 63 years, a life member of McSherrystown Knights of Columbus.

He helped to organize McSherrystown Little League, Pee Wee Baseball League, and Catholic Youth Organization Football League, which he coached. He was a veteran of World War II, having served with the Army/Air Force in the China, Burma and India Theater.

Surviving are five brothers, Donald J. Krepps of McSherrystown, James H. Krepps of Dover, Joseph R. Krepps of Cocoa, Fla., Frederick E. Krepps of New Oxford, and C. Daniel Krepps of Maitland, Fla.; and one sister, Rosalie Toth of Phoenix, Ariz.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Loretta Krepps, and a brother, Thomas Krepps.

A Mass of Christian burial will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday at Annunciation Church in McSherrystown, with the Rev. Lawrence W. Sherdel officiating. 'Pacer' supported McStown athletics

William Krepps died Tuesday after two weeks in the hospital following a bicycle accident.

May 16, 2002

By LAURA GIOVANELLI
Evening Sun Reporter

If you went to any Delone Catholic High School basketball game, you would have seen him.

Amid the whirl of black and gold cheerleader skirts and the brass boom of the band, Pacer Krepps would be sitting quietly in his usual spot, up on the left-hand side of the court, leaning against a wall.

A basketball game, a district playoff, a humid summer night of Little League - Krepps, dubbed "Mr. McSherrystown" by friend Philip Staub, was there.

William "Pacer" Krepps died Tuesday at York Hospital. He was 81.

The McSherrystown man was hit by a car April 30 as he attempted to cross from the north side in the 300 block of Main Street on his bike. No charges were filed in the accident.

Krepps suffered multiple injuries from the accident, including a broken pelvis and concussion. He was transported first to Hanover, then to York Hospital.

By last week, Krepps was sitting up and talking with visitors, including his brother, Fred Krepps, of New Oxford. He had been upgraded from intensive care to satisfactory, and Fred Krepps hoped his brother would be transferred shortly to The Brethren Home in New Oxford for further recovery.

But he developed a fatal blood clot as a result of his injuries, according to the York County coroner's office.

Pacer Krepps, after all, had a history of rarely keeping still. He was born Nov. 15, 1920, one of nine children, into the Second Street neighborhood where the children of McSherrystown spent their summers running in and out of each other's houses and where the mothers saw that each was well-supplied with cookies and milk and Band-Aids, Staub said.

During World War II, Krepps served with the Army Air Force in the Asian Theater, but he returned to the area when he was discharged.

The war veteran found a job with the U.S. Postal Service. For years, Krepps walked the streets of McSherrystown - with a slight hitch in his gait that might have earned him his nickname, according to Staub.

In a place where "everyone has a nickname," he delivered letters and packages, and a piece of candy to any child he encountered during his route, said Fred Krepps.

When he had to run errands, he would hop on his bicycle, Fred Krepps said last week. Pacer never learned how to drive - he didn't have to.

"McSherrystown was his world," Fred Krepps said.

Every day, Krepps would pedal his bike to the Home Association of McSherrystown, a private club of 2,000 members where he served as the association's secretary. There, he also would indulge in a hand of cards with friends, including manager James Miller.

"Pacer would give you the shirt off of his back," Miller said.

Krepps managed Staub's Little League team; that's how the two met. Staub, a sixth-grader at the time, remembers Krepps as a patient manager.

"He observed and congratulated, win or lose. He was a man of the children," Staub said.

Two generations later, Krepps still was attending the games. When district games took Delone players out of the area, he would organize charter buses to carry friends and family to the events, Staub said.

Krepps also helped organize and coach a parochial football league for elementary school students - an organization that later joined the York-Adams Elementary Football League.

But even McSherrystown's biggest fan knew his athletes couldn't play on fields of dreams - he was a fierce fund raiser, always trying to raise money for equipment, for repairing fields, for erecting stands, said Staub.

While Krepps kept one eye on the scoreboard, the other was often preoccupied with following the wins and losses of the stock market.

"Sports and stocks - those were the two main topics of his life," Staub said.

Krepps favored keeping tabs on up-and-coming biotechnology and medical companies.

On Friday, Staub saw his old friend for the last time - he was the same old Pacer, sitting up in his hospital bed, alert and bright and doing what he loved to do - talking scores.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday at Annunciation Church, McSherrystown. Burial will be in the Annunciation Church Cemetery. Friends will be received Friday evening at Hicks Funeral Home, 501 Ridge Ave., McSherrystown, where a prayer service will be held at 8 p.m.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Delone Tuition Fund, 140 S. Oxford Ave., McSherrystown, PA 17344
